THE FIRE HAWK BAND

Long time father and son team, and Santaquin residents, Tom Manzanares and Marty Manzanares front the Fire Hawk band. The band has enjoyed 42 years of local popularity and success, and was founded in 1983 when Tom parted ways with another very popular band, the Chapparals. In 1993 Tom's oldest son Marty joined the band as Lead guitarist and vocalist, and the pair haven't looked back since! The current members are some most sought after, talented musicians in the mountain west. Randy Corbett (Drums), Tony Chavez (Lead guitar), and Greg Restad (Steel Guitar, Lead Guitar). The band is one of Utah's top country and rock band, and are known for their edgy sound, showmanship and their ability to connect with an audience. Fire Hawk's style of music can be described as a blend of country old and new & classic and modern rock. Fire Hawk truly excels at what they do, and love doing it! Over the years the band has shared the stage with many big-name acts including King Calaway, Chris Ledoux, The Bellamy Brothers, Restless Heart, Ty Herndon, Mel McDaniels, Highway 101, Ricochet, and Dan Seals.

Welcome Rodeo Fans to Young Living's "LAST CHANCE" RODEO

RODEO

Every year, approximately 7500 cowboys compete in 650 rodeos for more than $30 million in prize money. Sanctioning over a third of these annual rodeos in the US and Canada is the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), the oldest, largest and highest paying rodeo organization in the world. The PRCA rodeo season culminates each year with the ten-day National Finals Rodeo (NFR) in December in Las Vegas, Nevada. The NFR is the premier championship rodeo event in the U.S. where the top fifteen money-earners in the eight events compete for a $10 million total purse and the chance to earn a World Championship in their event. Young Living is the "Last Chance Rodeo" for rodeo participants to qualify for the NFR National Rodeo Finals held in Las Vegas, Nevada.

A special thank you to our PRCA partners:

Legacy Pro Rodeo celebrates the rich heritage of American rodeo, rooted in the storied history of Bar T Rodeo, founded by Swanny Kerby in Utah. As Swanny led those wild horses to Moab, UT in 1948, history began. Legacy is the culmination of many moments, influenced and not dictated. We stand before you because of generations of relentless commitment and dedication from the Kerby's and the Flitton's. On behalf of John Growney, Dusty Howell, and myself, thank you for entrusting us with this next chapter, as we continue to tell this story to future generations.

JOHN HARRISON

John Harrison, rodeo clown and entertainer, has worked rodeos from coast to coast and has made 13 appearances at the prestigious National Finals Rodeo, three times as a specialty act performer and 10 times as a barrel man. You may see John just about anywhere in the United States entertaining crowds in his signature yellow shirt with red fringe and topped off with the red cowboy hat. He packs several different acts with him in his living quarters trailer, so there is no telling what you may see!

John comes by the rodeo and family aspect honestly, while he is a noted rodeo clown and barrel man, his late grandfather was rodeo legend, Freckles Brown.

(Freckles rode the “unrideable” bull Tornado, the subject of Western Music songs, and was a World Champion Bull Rider in 1962) John was around rodeo and rodeo people his whole life. He became a member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) in 1999, as a trick and roman rider, and trick roper. He later diversified and added barrel man to his PRCA card.

John Harrison and team are known as “The Clown Family” among rodeo fans and professionals. You rarely see John at a rodeo without his tribe. He and his wife,

Carla have had 4 children. Addy, their oldest is embarking on a fun journey of her own. She interviews contestants & personnel and then asks them questions kids want to know about. Caz, their son, has been seen dressed just like John entertaining and doing flips during the mutton busting, but now is focusing on steer riding and all things hunting. Next in line would be Billie, a daughter, now an angel in Heaven now. Capping off the crew is the youngest girl, Charlee, who is the self-proclaimed “leader” of everything, but especially the Clown Family!

John feels blessed to be doing what he loves and with those he loves at his side.

OUTLAW COUNTRY SWING DANCING

Outlaw Country Swing Dancing is thrilled to bring the joy of swing dancing to the fall festival! We will be leading the dance party on our hardwood floor. With years of experience and a love for all things swing. No partner needed – just bring your enthusiasm!

WHISPERING SPRINGS KNIGHTS

The Knights of Whispering Springs bring you a live and thrilling show, patterned after the shows from the 15th century. They will perform games and the medieval joust, which by no means is safe or easy. It is entertaining to watch by all. Come enjoy and support our show herald, Sir Mike as he calls into the arena our knights, Sir Jacob, Sir Cameron, Lady Chyrah and Lady Hailey as they compete against each other.

COOPER ALAN

CONCERT IN THE PARK
SEPTEMBER 27
5:00 P.M. IN THE
LOWER WEST PARK

A rising star with the spirit of a true entertainer, a penchant for outside-the-box thinking and a growing, self-built audience, Cooper Alan is an artist willing to take country music where others have never dreamed – and fans love him for it. Whether it’s a deeply personal, step-by-step romantic saga, or an off-the-wall party anthem, Alan’s music is already some of country’s most fearless work, and he’s just getting started. A native of Winston-Salem, NC, the independent artist has racked up more than 250 million streams, a massive digital presence with more than 15 million followers across all social media platforms, and a touring footprint that sold over 125,000 tickets to date. It all stems from an ability to meet fans where they are – a creative renegade freely mixing musical styles, with boundless energy, sharp writing, and often, a sense of humor. But don’t be mistaken, there’s nothing gimmicky about it.

After releasing ‘Take Forever’, a 5 song EP telling the real-life story behind his wedding in the Fall of 2023, Alan was named as a 2024 Pandora Ten Artist To Watch and named to the Sirius XM and Pandora 2024 Future Five List. Soon after launching his single “Take Forever”, it climbed to number one on Sirius XM The Highway’s Hot 30 Weekend Countdown. With his latest singles “Jesus Saves”, “Suit and Tie (Sixteen Tons)”, “Wake Me Up (feat. Aloe Blacc)”, and “Plead The Fifth” Alan takes his first step into the next batch of music to come. Coming off a sold out Australia headline tour at the end of 2024, he is launching his ‘To The Bar Tour’ hitting markets all across the United States in the Spring of 2025.
